30-DAY REMOTE INTERN ONBOARDING ROADMAP

OBJECTIVE: To integrate remote interns seamlessly into the corporate culture, equipping them with the necessary tools, context, and milestones to achieve independent productivity by Day 30.

1. IT PROVISIONING: TOOLS & ACCESS RIGHTS (Pre-Day 1)

Before the intern logs on, the IT and HR departments will configure access to:

- I. Communication & Collaboration: Slack (Team chat), Zoom (Video calls), Google Workspace
- II. Project Management: Jira, Trello, or Notion workspace
- III. Technical Infrastructure: Public/Private GitHub Repositories, internal documentation wikis
- IV. Security Layer: Corporate VPN configuration and Password Manager access

2. PHASED 30-DAY ROADMAP & MILESTONES

PHASE 1: THE FIRST WEEK (Integration & Orientation)

Day 1: Welcome & Compliance

- Morning: Virtual HR Orientation (Company culture, policies, handbook review).
- Afternoon: IT setup validation, environment configuration, credential verification.

Day 2: Team Integration

- Morning: Formal virtual introduction meeting with the immediate team and manager.
- Afternoon: Buddy Assignment (Pairing the intern with a senior team peer for informal guidance).

Day 3: Architecture & Workflow Review

- Deep-dive session walking through team workflows, repository structures, and active projects.

Day 4: Micro-Task Assignment

- Assign a small, zero-risk starter task to help the intern navigate the deployment pipeline

Day 5: First Week Retrospective

- 1-on-1 check-in meeting with the manager to clear doubts and gather initial feedback.

PHASE 2: DAYS 6 - 15 (Guided Collaboration)

Milestone: Shadowing senior engineers on core workflows and attending daily standups.

Project Work: Intern takes ownership of independent sub-tasks under senior supervision.

Mid-Phase Review: End of Week 2 sync to gauge technical comfort levels.

PHASE 3: DAYS 16 - 30 (Independent Execution)

Milestone: Full independent ownership of a standard sprint task.

Cross-Functional Exposure: Intern attends an overview meeting with a parallel department.

Day 30 Performance Review: Evaluation of early milestones, setting goals for the next month.
